FIFA is the world's leading videogame franchise. EA SPORTS FIFA is the best football experience on every console. FIFA brings more football to life than ever before, with its new Player Impact Engine, Career Mode and more. With FIFA on every system, EA SPORTS is in control of the global football universe. What is the Player Impact Engine? The Player Impact Engine is a collective of systems which bring the game closer to the real experience. FIFA 22 introduces the Player Impact Engine, a revolutionary new gameplay engine designed to improve the flow of the entire game. The Player Impact Engine will enable: Familiar gameplay features from past FIFA games, such as controls, ball physics, ball flight, kicking mechanics, player collision and more Dynamic and immersive gameplay, where every player has more choices, more ball control, more weight and a new connection to the ball, which all impact the outcome of the match Better, more authentic and refined touches and reactions from players and opponents New passes, dribbling options, flicks and more New animation and more distinct looks and styles for players and teams from all leagues, locations and eras Game-changing features for players from all types of clubs and teams, thanks to a new, tiered Player Skills system, where players earn Abilities as they play more. Players from every league, from all continents, now have the tools to master their position and their role in the game Unprecedented data capturing and recording techniques Ultimate control of pitch conditions including flooring, snow, rain and lighting, all of which impact the integrity of the ball and the experience on-pitch The Player Impact Engine is built on the same powerful basis as FIFA 19. In FIFA 22, the updates introduced in FIFA 19 have been further expanded to cover every area of the game. How do the Player Skills system, Player Impact Engine and Gyroscope combine to create a more immersive experience? The Player Skills system works to create more intelligence, recognition and authenticity in the game, so players have more options to make a dynamic contribution to the match. The Player Skills system is based on a system we have developed for FIFA 19, which introduced gameplay enhancements in all areas of the game. In FIFA 22, this has been expanded to include new Player Skills, new Intangible Skills, a revised Diamond System and New Player Emotions. With the Player
