Even though it's a ballad, all four minutes and 37 seconds of it sound like one endless song. . It would be like it was "One of Us" from "The Living Tombstone", which after all is still the only song that I think is a worthy successor to "Always". . "All of Me" is a real ballad, but it's also the most stylish ballad of this era. It's also a bit sad, but not only because of sadness.
